

TEACHING THE HOLOCAUST EMPOWERING STUDENTS

WHY ATTEND THIS PROGRAM?

This professional development session will give you the tools to teach and initiate important discussions about the complex lessons of the Holocaust. In exploring classroom-tested strategies that can be implemented with your students, you will leave with increased confidence and effective materials to tackle the tough questions your students have about this subject. The why. The how.

WHAT IS ECHOES & REFLECTIONS?

Echoes & Reflections is the premier source for Holocaust educational materials and dynamic content, empowering teachers and students with the insight needed to question the past and foresight to impact the future. We partner with educators to support them, foster confidence, and amplify their skills and resources to teach about the Holocaust in a comprehensive and meaningful way.

PROGRAM GOALS

Through this program, educators will:

- 1 Explore a sound pedagogy for the planning and implementation of Holocaust education in the classroom
- 2 Examine new instructional enhancements to support student learning through inquiry and a Social-Emotional Learning lens
- 3 Discover and utilize new classroom resources on Prewar Jewish Life and Contemporary Antisemitism
- 4 Enhance personal knowledge about the Holocaust, and build confidence and capacity to teach this complex subject
- 5 Explore Dimensions in Testimony and strategies to utilize this new technology in the classroom

"The ultimate job of a teacher is to make connections to your students with the curriculum. You want them to walk away with a personal sense of responsibility. Echoes & Reflections helps me do that."
